Share specific ways that Yokefellow is making a difference in the lives of inmates, which will be posted on Facebook and tweeted. Examples:

- An inmate at Orange Correctional who was feeling depressed about not being able to spend Christmas with his family felt encouraged after another inmate in a meeting shared how he got through Christmas last year.
  - An inmate at Pamlico Correctional shared his story after not saying a word at meetings for the first three months. He said seeing the same volunteers week after week helped him believe that they really care.
  - A former inmate of Craggy Correctional joined the local Yokefellow volunteers. He is now a law-abiding citizen and wants to encourage inmates to take a different path.
