50th Anniversary 1970's/1980's-themed Fundraising Benefit

Celebrating the ministry like an "early Yokefellow"

On September 7, Yokefellow Prison Ministry held its 50th Anniversary Fundraising Benefit at the Greensboro Shrine Club on High Point Road in Greensboro. The theme was the 1970's and 1980's, celebrating the lives of early Yokefellows. Many attendees dressed in 1970's and 1980's outfits.

Ed Dean, DJ from MoMusic, played retro Contemporary Christian music and gave away prizes to attendees who could answer trivia questions about the 1970's.

Speakers Steve Kitchens and Brandon Carter shared their powerful testimonies.

Heavy appetizers were provided by Bella Luna Ristorante in Oak Ridge and McAlister's Deli. Greensboro SEO Pro also sponsored the event.

Additional support came from numerous members of the community through silent auction donations, including a 2018 Lithograph Football from the Carolina Panthers, two grandstand tickets for the NASCAR SPRINT All Star Race from Charlotte Motor Speedway, and baseball tickets from the High Point Rockers.

Thank you to everyone who helped make this event a success!

Yokefellow Event for Polk Correctional Volunteers

The Polk Correctional Yokefellow group celebrated a social evening of potluck and games at North Raleigh United Methodist Church on September 7. Spearheaded by Jazzi Richardson, the gathering included the spouses/partners of volunteers and chaplains. It featured fun competition in Bible Trivia, board games, cards and more.

MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD PRESIDENT

Recently, while reading through our Yokefellow Prison Ministry website, I was reminded of our wonderful opportunities to serve the Lord. We are called to be disciplined in our devotion and service. Here's a bit of what I read, and all of these serve as wonderful reminders.

Yokefellow Prison Ministry is an interdenominational, racially-diverse Christian ministry of reconciliation begun in 1969, which includes both lay and clergy, male and female. It is founded on the idea that people's lives are changed through committed relationships. The Biblical foundation of our commitment is the invitation by Christ our Lord in the Gospel of Matthew 11:29-30.

Yokefellows voluntarily accept a common discipline in living the Christian life, which includes:

- ◇ Prayer - To pray every day, preferably at the beginning of the day.
- ◇ Scripture - To seek God's guidance through reverent reading of the Bible every day, following a definite plan.
- ◇ Worship - To participate, at least once a week, in public worship of God.

- ◇ Money - To return to God a definite portion of my income to support the Christian cause.
- ◇ Service - To invest a specific amount of my time in humble acts of love and service to others.
- ◇ Witness - To make an unapologetic witness in daily life, daily work, daily words.
- ◇ Study - To become a better-informed Christian by careful study of Christian books.

Yokefellows commit themselves to participate in a weekly Yokefellow meeting for sharing, support, encouragement and accountability for Christian growth.

Thank you to all who serve as Yokefellow volunteers in NC prisons, our Yokefellow Board, the Executive Committee, grantors and foundations, churches, organizations, and individuals who support our work and ministry prayerfully and financially.

Thank you, Vita Alligood and Carlton Gooding, who energetically, effectively, and generously lead, train, and guide us.

And lastly, thank you for providing me the privilege of journeying with you as Yokefellow Prison Ministry continues to grow and embrace the opportunities to serve the Lord. I pray we will be "yoked" as we serve together. To God Be the Glory.

Please continue to pray that God will lead us and that He will be glorified. Sincerely, I pray for us all and God's ministry to those who are incarcerated.

David Morton, YPM President
