

HOW YOU CAN SUPPORT YOKEFELLOW

Pray: Pray for those in prison, for their families, victims of crime, and prison staff & chaplains.

Volunteer: Visit our website at www.yokefellowprisonministry.org/who-we-serve to find the closest ministry to you and how you can volunteer. You may also email Carlton Gooding at cgooding@yokefellowprisonministry.org for more information on how to get involved.

Give: Yokefellow Prison Ministry relies entirely upon the generosity of people who love God, individual churches, foundational grants, and the grace of the Lord for its support

"Come to me all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

Matthew 11:28-30

PRISON
MINISTRY
OF NORTH CAROLINA

WHAT WE DO?

Yokefellow is not your traditional Bible study. Yokefellow is a "relational evangelism" ministry which relies on small group discussions facilitated by volunteers. Yokefellow volunteers do not teach or preach from the Bible; they simply talk about whatever a participant wants to talk about - feelings and emotions such as pain, loneliness, isolation, fear, etc. Yokefellow volunteers give incarcerated people the opportunity to be heard and to feel valued as an individual; as relationships develop and participants eventually feel more comfortable sharing their stories volunteers are able to look for opportunities for the light of Christ to shine through and show participants that forgiveness, acceptance, belonging, and redemption are possible.

Yokefellow Prison Ministry meets on a regular basis as allowed by facility administration. For more information about specific dates and times please contact Executive Director Carlton Gooding by email at cgooding@yokefellowprisonministry.org

WHAT IS YOKEFELLOW?

Yokefellow Prison Ministry of North Carolina, Inc. is a statewide, interdenominational ministry that is made up of a diverse group of people who have answered the call of Christ. These dedicated, trained volunteers visit prisons, residential reentry facilities, and our post release "Aftercare" meetings across the state of North Carolina on a regular basis.

The mission of Yokefellow Prison Ministry is to provide opportunities for incarcerated people to develop personal relationships with community volunteers and to "yoke up" with them to examine their lives, experience forgiveness, and the healing power of God's love so that they can return from incarceration with new disciplines that empower them to commit to taking personal responsibility for themselves and be able to contribute to their families and the community.
